Response to Amendment

The following is in response to the amendment filed on March 28, 2007.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 11-14 and 34 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 11-14 are allowed, because the prior art does not disclose or suggest an embossed web product comprising an absorbent web having first, second, and third debosses, wherein at least a substantial portion of at least one of the debosses are substantially oriented in the cross-machine direction and are perforate embosses.

Claim 34 is allowed, because the prior art does not disclose or suggest an embossed web product comprising an absorbent web having first, second, and third debosses, wherein at least a substantial portion of each of the debosses are substantially oriented in the cross-machine direction.

The term "substantial portion" is understood to be at least 50%, and "substantially oriented in the cross-machine direction" is understood to be when the long axis is at an angle of from about 60 to 120 degrees from the machine direction of the web.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed March 28, 2007 have been fully considered.

The claims overcome the rejections under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) over Murji et al (US 5,387,385), Schulz (US 5,383,778), Bauernfeind (US 4,759,967), Burt (US 4,671,983), and Rogers (US Des. 264,512), applied previously. None of the references teach perforate embossing.
